

This application demonstrates how, through an effective combination of crowns, one can create a very impressive light valance. This is particularly well suited for barrel vaulted ceilings. The mouldings used here are the AB401 and AB402 crowns.