

This application illustrates one of the countless combinations that can create a magnificent cornice detail. This would be very appropriate for use in a grand entrance or foyer, or wherever a substantial cornice is needed. Of course, coordination with structure is imperative and should be addressed. Shown are the AB503 and AB504 crowns with AB83 crown backer and AB204-1 base board inverted for additional height.