

The inset style of panelling is a cost-effective alternative to raised panelling which must be fabricated in a mill shop. All of the work needed to produce this beautiful look can be done at the job site by qualified trim carpenters. Shown are the AB212 base, AB010 panel mould and the AB310 chair rail/panel cap.